

Genetics Society of AustralAsia Award for Excellence in Education 2023 Awards Application Cover Sheet

EXTENDED DEADLINE MIDNIGHT (AEDT) 7 DEC 2022

The Genetics Society of AustralAsia Award for Excellence in Education has been established by the Genetics Society of AustralAsia to recognise an individual who has made outstanding contributions to genetics education in AustralAsia. Candidates must be at least five years post the awarding of their PhD. The award is normally made to one educator at the Genetics Society of AustralAsia's annual meeting and is accepted by delivering a lecture at the meeting.

Recipients will have promoted greater exposure to and deeper understanding of genetics through their achievements that address one or more of the following selection criteria:

- approaches to teaching that influence, motivate and inspire students to learn
- development of new courses or curricula that reflect a command of the field
- national leadership in education
- public engagement and outreach

The award consists of:

- a certificate
- the opportunity to present an invited talk at the conference
- registration fees to attend the conference, including a dinner ticket if applicable (Important note: all applicants should not register to the conference before their application outcome is known. Unsuccessful applicants will have guaranteed access to early bird registration fees)
